

The Church vs The Bomb

7.30 pm Tuesday 27 June
Renfield St Stephens Church
Bath Street, Glasgow

Come and hear the voices of the Church of Scotland and the Roman Catholic Church as they speak out against the replacement of Trident

Right Rev Alan McDonald
Moderator of the Church of Scotland

Cardinal Keith O'Brien
Archbishop of St Andrews and Edinburgh

The long silence about Britain's nuclear weapons is about to be broken. The government may shortly announce a plan to renew or upgrade our Trident weapons system. This would cost the earth, and not make us safer against terrorists. It is immoral and it is useless.

Come and hear the voice of the Churches.

“If it is immoral to use these weapons it is also immoral to threaten their use”

Bishop's conference of Scotland, April 2006

“We continue to ask the basic question of Trident or any replacement: What is it for ?”

Church of Scotland's Church and Society Council, May 2006
